VALENTINE DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT

Junior Girls Prominent in 4-H

Cynthia Allen and Elizabeth Behrens have recently won a $50 bond in 4-H work. They are both active in their school activities and have made names for themselves in 4-H.

Cynthia has been in 4-H work for seven years. She has completed her work in crafts, sewing, knitting, cooking, canning, home improvement, and freezing food. She has attended the State 4-H week at Amherst, Massachusetts, the county camp for many years. This past year she was a junior counselor instructing boating. She was a delegate for clothing at the State Club Congress at Boston. She has won many prizes and medals, among these are a lamp, a clock from Westinghouse for home improvement and a Dairy Food medal. For the past two years, Cynthia has been a Junior leader in a 4-H club.

Betty also has been in 4-H work for seven years. She has completed her work in crafts, sewing, cooking, canning, and freezing food. She has attended the State 4-H week at Amherst, Massachusetts. She was a delegate of canning at the State Club Congress at Boston. Betty is the secretary of the 4-H service club. This year she is a leader of her own group of younger 4-H workers.

F.F.A. NEWS

Senior Appointed Commissioner

Governor Herter recently appointed Ralph D'Amato as Commissioner of Agriculture for the Student Good Government Day in Boston on March 12, 1954.

This is a wonderful honor to Ralph D'Amato and to the students of Agawam High School.

Donaldine Roos Crowned Sweetheart

Donaldine Roos was unanimously elected Chapter Sweetheart by the members of Agawam High School F.F.A. Chapter.

She received a white satin Chapter Sweetheart jacket, a beautiful bouquet of flowers, and a gold crown. Everyone who attended the dance had a wonderful time.

SACHEM STAFF CHOSEN

Not all the committees have been picked for the Sachem as of yet but those that have are already working hard. At the rate we're going, this year's Sachem will definitely be the "best yet."

The "Ad" committee is being ably headed by Business Managers Ray Saracino and Jim O'Keefe.

The "Gifts" committee is as follows: Shirley Mutti, Frances Radwilowicz, Jim O'Keefe, Bill Rhodes, Judy Slate, and Carol Pallo.

The "Class History" committee, who will look back at the wonderful times we've had through the years, is as follows: Nancy Richardson, Sandra Rivers, Joyce Sullivan, Ellsworth Sharpe, Ray Saracino, and Donald Avery.

Juniors! These are the people you'd better be especially nice to for the rest of the year. The "Will" committee is: Elizabeth Langlois, Frances Willard, Donaldine Roos, Nancy Hallock, Roger LeClerc, and Elliot Blackburn.

The committee looking into our bright future is the "Prophesy" committee. The members of this committee are Betty Voislow, John Cardone, Adrienne Grasso, Ann Zucco, and Ralph D'Amato.

Shirley Mutti is the head of the "Class Motto" committee and is being assisted by Donaldine Roos, Adrienne Grasso, and Ray Saracino.

These seniors are really working hard and they deserve a lot of credit for the wonderful job they're doing.

Good luck, seniors!

CORRESPONDENCE FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS

To the future students of the University of Mass.:

I've been asked to write an unbiased letter about our State university as I see it. But seeing that two heads are better than one, I've dragged in Bob Hardina to give aid with his apt expressions.

The University of Mass. is located in the foothills of the Berkshires, one of the most beautiful sections of New England, only twenty-seven miles from Agawam. The university itself has a large and picturesque campus, surrounded by more than seventy buildings with many more proposed or under construction. The faculty is exceptionally large for a school of this size and will compare favorably with that of any other university in the country. The student body of more than four thousand students is friendly and for the most part, very loyal to their school, as was shown by the support given our football team during the past very mediocre season.

The system of classes here at the university cannot be compared in any way to your present system in high school. Classes theoretically begin at 8:00 a.m. and end at 5:00 p.m. But don't get worried, the average day has only from four to five hours of classes. The classes themselves last fifty minutes with, depending on your subjects, some two or three hour lab sessions.

There is plenty of social life for all. Almost every subject has its club or organization. Friday and Saturday nights are dance nights for fraternities, sororities, and independents. If you don't like dancing there is the Amherst Theatre which has excellent first-rate shows. And if you're broke, there are great times to be had in your dorm.

There is nothing like dormitory life, believe us. How can 175 men live under the same roof and not have some terrific times? As for the women's dormitories, our knowledge of what goes on inside is very limited but we'd venture the opinion that they have just as much fun as we do. Your room is where you do your studying, sleeping, and any other small scale social events. Every dorm has a recreation room, an athletic committee, and a social committee. Needless to say, whether you star at ping pong, football, or dancing, there is an outlet for your talents.

The university is building an athletic department which we hope in the next few years will produce some championship teams. Right now our basketball team is tied for first place in the

The annual Valentine Dance, sponsored by the Personality Club, will be held on February 5, 1954. Dancing will be from 8 until 11.

Mary Pond, always a hard worker, is general chairman, and as usual is putting a lot of effort into making the dance a success.

Mary is being assisted by a capable group of committee chairmen. Among these is Dolores Lucardi, who is in charge of refreshments.

Jean Maule had the job of inviting the faculty and other executives to the event of the year.

Some very special entertainment has also been secured. Julie Mercier was the able person who collected the fine talent.

Chet Nicora, a popular bang-bang drummer, will bring a wonderful band by the name of the "Mello-Tones" to play for the dance. Vaughan Kelly should be given credit for this fine achievement.

So that you may remember this dance in the coming years, Dorothy Roos and her committee have made some intricate souvenirs just for this dance.

To keep the public informed and to sell the tickets were the jobs of the publicity and ticket committee. It was headed by Don Hastings, who was assisted by a wonderful committee.

Well, that's the dope on the dance. Now let's see all of you there February 5. Don't forget February 5, 1954!

ATTENTION EVERYONE!

The Junior class is going to sponsor a paper drive. We want to cover the whole town of Agawam. That may sound like a lot of territory, but we have a lot of people to do the work. The drive will be the week of our next vacation, February 22-27. We will supply the trucks and the people to collect the paper, but we need the support of the whole school.

Anyone who has papers and wants to be sure they're picked up, contact any of the Junior class officers: Don Hastings, Larry Gallerani, Alice Harpin, or Jane Masure.

We will appreciate everyone's co-operation.

The Stenography II class has added six more girls who can write shorthand at 80 words a minute. They are: Adrienne Grasso, Annette Girard, Shirley Mutti, Joan De Mars, Mary Hawkins, and Betty Greco.

At this time, the majority of this class is taking dictation at 100 words-a-minute to gain speed for the 100 w.p.m. Gregg Company test next month.

EDITORIAL

Would you bother to go home from a hard day's work and study long hours into the night by just the light of a candle or fireplace? Would you walk for miles to a friend's house just to borrow a book. Would you ever stop to look at a Bible, let alone take time to read it, even partially? Dressed up in your best clothes, would you stop en route to a very special meeting to pull a pig out of a mud puddle? If someone came up to you and offered a knife saying, "A man once gave this to me and said if I ever meet a man uglier than I, give it to him," would you accept it in a good natured manner?

No, few of us would do any one of these things and still fewer would do two or three. Why, we can't be bothered to study in school where the best books and facilities are had, never mind studying by ourselves, under poor conditions. Few of us care enough for fellow men to go out of our way to help them, saying nothing of a lowly pig. And many today would sue a man for insulting us rather than take it good naturedly. Yes, few of us can do any of these, but can anyone of us even compare ourselves with a man who did all of them—ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

FASHION-ATING NEWS

Fashion is a-foot in colorful wool jersey "Tyes" . . . . the glamourous new socks that hug your ankles in an eye-catching flash of color. Joyce Merk has a pair of navy and sky white and they look adorable with her white bucks. Wear "Tyes" and watch fashion follow at your heels!

The color that seems to be setting the way for '54 is green. There are so many pretty shades of green, especially mint green. Betty Voislow, Delores Giordano, Gail Slate, Millie Pohner, and Pam Steeves have the cutest sweaters of mint green. If you noticed, Betty wears green socks to match her sweater—another fad starting in Agawam. We must give credit to Miss Hastings for starting this fad of colored socks. She has them in a pretty shade of purple, with a sweater to match. Speaking of sweaters, have you noticed the cute twin sweaters Frannie and Roger have been wearing lately.

Most of you have noticed the cute corduroy suit Marie Steeves wears. It's a deep maroon with a fitted jacket and a straight skirt. Well, believe it or not, but Marie made it herself! She is very clever at sewing. We also have another girl in the senior class who made a cute suit, Elizabeth Langlois. It is a blue, green and yellow wool plaid with a straight skirt and a weskit. Both of these suits look like they were bought. Lucia Alfano not only made a cute skirt but she also designed it herself. It is a weave of blue and red and it is a full skirt with unpressed pleats. Other girls who are good at sewing are Carol Pallo, Sandra Kelly, Ann Zucco, Terry Morassi and Carolyn Fogg. Congratulations to these girls who sew.

Yankee Conference. Our sore spot though, is our football team. Our varsity team won only one game last season but the frosh team was undefeated. You can look for some of this freshman talent on the varsity squad next season.

There is no excuse for someone not being able to study up here. We'll admit that at times the dormitories get very noisy, but there is always the library, some buddy's room in a quieter section, or the lobby to do your studying in.

We've tried to give you some idea of the set-up at the university. We have stressed the activities rather than the studies because for the most part, we feel, that you realize that there is a large amount of studying to be done no matter what school you pick.

We hope we have answered all of your questions. If not, we'd be glad to answer any others that you might have.

QUESTION: If you could have one wish granted, what would it be?

Annette Girard—I wish I were a few years younger!

Joe Pisano—I wish I were a few years older!

Chet Krygowski—I wish I were Joe DiMaggio!

Audrey LaCourse—I wish I could stand on my head and spit nickels, so I could become a millionaire.

Bertha Longy—I wish that I could be sure of that A.I.C. freshman.

Roger Phaneuf—I wish I had a steady girl.

Bob McGuire—I wish I had a "steadie cutie."

Roland Merk—I wish to graduate!

Mary Brooks—I wish he'd call more often!

Joan Binninkade—I wish I was Marilyn, now that she's married to Joe.

Phil Cardone—I wish that all my little wishes would come true.

Amber Wolcott—I wish I could meet Stewart Granger in person.

Don Marsian & Dan Molta—We wish we could have our coat closets back!

Harriet Shea—I wish I were a brain in geometry.

Buzzy Williams—I wish that I were the welterweight champ of the world.

John Martino—I wish I had a million dollars.

Shirley Mutti—I wish that a certain senior boy would not be such a pest, and be nice to me.

Ricky Stahle—I wish to attend Yale after graduation.

Donny Hastings—I wish I wouldn't have to argue with Larry every time I want him to do something.

Barb Morassi—I wish I had a dependable boy to go steady with.

Barb Maiola—I wish the Agawam Indian would come back to his squaw.

together as a team for many years. Four years ago they started giving demonstrations as a team. The first demonstration was muffins; the second, coffee bread; the third, "floating island"; and this year their demonstration was called a "Bag full of tricks with a home-made mix," which won them the $50 bonds.

They have been very successful in 4-H work and we hope they will continue to do so.

THRU THE KEYHOLE

Since it is the opinion of a good part of the student body that we eliminate the opening of this column, we will do so. So hold on to your hats and get set for the worse!

Chet Krygowski—the "Soph, Sport Whiz" . . . Those new cheerleaders we had in assembly were really keen! Roger P.—What's the attraction in room 15? Joyce — Parting is such sweet sorrow! Carol and Biffy—Who won? Carlo I.—A reconciliation with Jackie? Pat L.—Did she say "yes" yet? Judy B.—Why is Frosh basketball so interesting? Why does J. Minney wish she were at Trade? Who were the four Soph. traitors at the West Side game? J. Warren—Is it Bobby or Johnny? J. Thorpe—Why the sudden interest in skiing? Bob Sigrist—Don't you think the Agawam girls are sociable? We hear Bev Marieb's favorite color is red, yes, Bev? Chet Nicora—What's so important at 2:45, could be that senior? M. Masure—Which one do you really like? Who's the junior that's been making eyes at cute Jackie Phillips? What say, Gail?

Don't think a senior is slightly balmy if he suddenly breaks into gales of laughter for apparently no reason at all. He might be recalling some of the characters that appeared at the Kid Party. I must say one thing, everyone certainly appeared as what they were in their early years—BRATS! Of course you know I'm only kidding! We heard there was quite a bit of mistletoe at that party—was there, Terry W.?—and in the balcony, too! Judy B. and Judy R. "Double Trouble," Mac, make up my mind, will ya? Richie Thomas—Didn't give her a chance to talk, did you? J. Meissner—Do your fortunes always come true? Bill Rhodes—"The silent one" (We heard you should watch out for that kind!) It's amazing to say but Dick "Brillo" Coburn's "CAR?" still runs. (It must be one of those new mysteries of science—maybe it isn't new. It isn't science, but it certainly is a mystery.)

Well, you can breathe now because that's all for this issue, but be careful, we'll be back next month!

First Taste of TV

On January 20th, seven students of the Junior High School, under the direction of Mrs. Wayne Holmes and Officer John Chriscola, presented a safety program on television over Channel 55.

The students placed the emphasis on obeying rules and regulations of safety. Those participating in the program were: Terry Baird, Nancy Crean, Sally Fiegiel, Richard Morassi, John Parent, Linda Pickard, and Thomas Provost.

Also present at the time of the program were Chief Roland Reed and Mr. Dacey.

Our congratulations to those who helped in any way to make this program possible, as it was a very interesting and educational program.

Freshmen Flashes

New Student

Thomas Torongone arrived for his first school day at Agawam High on January 4, 1954. He last attended Chestnut Street Junior High School in Springfield. He is taking the college curriculum, and plans on making the profession of medicine his life's work. His interest and hobby is airplanes.

Freshmen Cheerleaders

Twelve girls, under the direction of Miss Hastings, tried out for freshmen cheerleaders. From these twelve, the six that were chosen were Beverly Grant, Marilyn Masure, Anna Demichele, Patricia Arnold, Shirley Pond, and Ann Decoteaux. Before the girls were eligible to try out, they had to have at least two B's or one A, and all passing marks.

Klub Kapers

Tri-Hi-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y Club held its first meeting of the new year on January 12, when a group of members participated in a World Service Program. Each year the Agawam Tri-Hi-Y Club packs and sends gift packages which are distributed by the Red Cross. At the meeting Miss Miller also announced that the annual Tri-Hi-Y Convention will be held in Beverly, Mass., from March 5-7. The conference includes an interesting and challenging program, and should be an event which many girls will plan to attend.

Biology Club

At the Biology Club meeting on January 18th, a guest speaker lectured to the group about the Physiology and Hygienic Care of Feet. At the meeting special assignments were also given to the members.

The Camera Club

At the Camera Club meeting, the advisor, Mr. Roseman, talked to the club on "The Art of Photographing and Developing Colored Pictures," and presented some colored slides which he had taken. The Club has purchased some new equipment from profits secured by the Magazine Drive and is planning a very active program for the new year.

Personality Club

At the Personality Club meeting on January 8, a new steering committee was elected and result is as follows: sophomores, Thomas O'Keefe, Shirley Spinelli, Amber Wolcott; juniors: Anita Rosso, Craig McEwan; seniors: Theresa Wright and Vaughn Kelley. Also at the meeting, February 5, was announced as the date for the Valentine dance.

International Relations Club

At the I.R.C. meeting on January 13, an excellent speaker, who had toured Greece, showed movies and told the club about her experiences while in Greece.

Ski Club

The Ski Club has held two meetings during the first part of January, at which time the group decided to take advantage of the recent snowstorm, which made skiing conditions excellent. They took trips to Blandford and East Otis, where most of the new members had their first taste of skiing. At another meeting, a movie, "Ski Safari," was shown. In the future the group plans to travel to various other ski areas including Snow Basin and Big Bromley.

F.T.A.

At the first meeting of the F.T.A. after vacation, Marjorie Magovern and Arlene Egbert led a discussion on certification of teachers.

For their following meeting, Marilyn Wilson and Cynthia Allen spoke on Teacher's clubs and organizations.

In the future, the group plans to spend a day at the University of Massachusetts.

Dribbles

Agawam Takes Opener, 48-39

Agawam opened its basketball season with an impressive "come-from-behind" victory over Chicopee High. Neither team was at its peak because of the earliness of the season. The Brownies had a slight edge in height with big Bob Anderson leaping up and grabbing a good share of the rebounds.

The high "point-getters" for the Brownies were Jim O'Keefe and Bob Anderson with 13 points each. Playing good rolls for the Skiptowners but in a losing cause, were Tommy Skypeck and Dick O'Brien.

Agawam Whips Classical, 53-45

The Brownies gave an excellent display of hoop talent at Classical High where they took the measure of the Bulldogs.

In the first half the Brownies connected on 48% of their shots from the floor and Classical couldn't keep up with this terrific pace. Agawam slowed down in the 2nd period but Classical was never able to catch up, even with the fine playing of Carl Scheir and John Dolan. Dan Molta, high scorer of the game with 23 points, scored four of his 10 baskets in the last few minutes of the game.

Agawam Bows To Trade, 69-49

December 15 — A powerful, tall, and talented Trade High School of Springfield came across the river to meet our Brownies. A capacity crowd of 500 fans watched the two teams battle on even terms up to the half. The half time score was Trade 26, Agawam 23. The last half was all Trade's, as they controlled both backboards and hit consistently with their shots. The final score was Trade 69, Agawam 49. Grebbins scored 18 points for Trade, while Freniere had 16 for Agawam.

Agawam Beats E'hampton, 56-47

January 8—Donny Hastings, subbing for Earl Freniere, led Agawam to a decisive victory over Easthampton. Anderson and LeClerc went on a scoring spree just before half time to make the half-time score, 31-20. In the second half Easthampton started to roll and cut down the lead to only four points. Donny Hastings then dropped in five points on a foul and two baskets, that gave Agawam a large enough lead so that they had no trouble in keeping it. As the final whistle blew the scoreboard read Agawam 56, Visitors 47.

Varsity Falls Before Holyoke

Holyoke High's Purple Knights invaded our gym and handed our fighting Brownies a 63-48 defeat. Agawam started fast, as they led 16-15 at the end of the first period. Holyoke pulled ahead at the start of the second period, and went on to win the hard-fought contest. O'Brien had 18 points for Holyoke while O'Keefe put in 15 for Agawam.

Brownies Roll Over Commerce

January 6 — Agawam's "Battlin' Brownies" traveled to Springfield to meet Commerce of Springfield in the Field House. The first half was a see-saw battle, with both teams enjoying the lead several times. Agawam scored six quick points at the end of the half to lead, 24-23. With Anderson leading the way, the Brownies forged ahead gradually and went on to win, 55-45. Anderson paced the winners with 22 points, while Clay scored 16 for Commerce.

Brownies Trounce Palmer, 79-47

Agawam's "Battlin' Brownies" met Palmer on the home court for its third game in the Valley Wheel. Agawam's men started to hit the hoop from the start so that at the half the Brownies had piled up a score of 41 to 20. The Brownies, led by Roger LeClerc, Pat Losito, and Bob Anderson, had no trouble in keeping their lead. As the final whistle blew the score stood, Agawam 79, Palmer 47.

Brownies Lose To Ludlow

January 5, Agawam's "Battlin' Brownies" travelled to Ludlow to open the Valley Wheel. The game was give and take so that the score at the half was tied, 21 to 21.

Agawam pulled ahead by a score of 30-23 in the third period, but two dangerous players, Orlando Jorge and Dave Minney, dunked a few baskets and took away the lead. The Brownies in a "never say die" effort, started to cut down the lead but the final whistle blew before Agawam could tie the score. They lost by only one basket. The final score, 46-44.
